

For the safety and well-being of our student body, and in order to comply with social distancing best practices and state-mandated stay-at-home order, no student should be working on their IB Community Project. The IB Coordinator will make students aware if that changes.